

11 April 2015 African American History Challenge Bowl

PUBLIC INVITED

The 2015 African American History Challenge Bowl will be held Saturday, 11 April, at the Doyle Administration Building of the Madison Metropolitan School District.

The 100 Black Men of Madison African American History Challenge Bowl (AAHCB) is an educational program designed to enhance the study of African American history. The AAHCB is open to all Madison-area middle school students with the goal to encourage pride, self-worth and an appreciation of the African American legacy and culture. It also is a challenging and fun way for students to expand their knowledge of African American History in highly competitive local and national competitions.

The 2014 winner of the local competition was the team from Badger Rock Middle School (pictured above).
