

Take a Black Youth to Church

AACCMADISON

The most understated asset in the African American Community is the belief in God, and the collateral role of the Church and its legacy of justice and survival.

The Church has served as a harbor, a shield, an opportunity of expression, a restorer of dignity, a platform of education and socialization, and above all a clear path of what is right and what is wrong.

No institution has been more important to African American families, economically, spiritually, socially and culturally than the Church.

Please join the 100 Black Men of Madison and the African American Council of Churches in support of "Take a Black Youth to Church on Father's Day," Sunday, 21 June 2015.
